Wiewiora was accused of causing the death of Lawrence Mydock in Norwich last July. Wiewiora and Mydock, who were both drunk, engaged in a fight in a boarding house and during the brawl Mydock received a fracture of the skull which caused his death in Backus hospital two days later.

The trial was started last Thursday

The trial was started last Thursday since which time much medical tes timony had been introduced as wel as that of several Polish witnesses. Attorney Thomas M. Shields, who with Atterney V. P. A. Quinn, has been counsel for the accused, recalled Patrick J. Sullivan to testify. This man told of seeing Mydock on the ground and of carrying him into the house but he did not see any blood on the man nor did he see any woman push Wiewiora away from Mydock while Mydock was on the ground. while Mydock was on the ground.

Michael Bukhara gave testimony that he looked through a window and saw Mydock with a glass of beer in his hand after the fight.

Dr. Louis T. Cassidy, who was call-ed to the house to treat the woman, who was kicked, was also put on the casing. Albert Wiewiors, the accused in the case, was called to the stand. He lestified that he had been in this counwas as follows:

Each town shall be entitled as a town to twice as many delegates as it has representatives in the legislature, and all towns in which the vote cast at the last presidential election exceeds 1,000 shall be entitled to one additional delegate for each additional 1,000 votes then cast, and also each fraction thereof exceeding one-half. related his story of the trouble at the house No. 8 Sherman street which did not differ materially from what had been told by the other witnesses. Mrs. Abbie J. Sherman of Somers has presented to the state library, through Edwin C. Davis of Somers, a manuscript diary of Noah Chapin, Jr., of Somers, kept by him from April 18, 1775, to July 17, 1775. Noah Chapin, Jr., was born July 20, 1748, was ensign May 1, 1775, in Capt. Solomon Willes' company in Col. Joseph Spencer's regicompany in Col. Joseph Spencer's regiment, raised on the first call for troops, by the legislature of Connecticut. April-May, 1775.

This regiment marched by companies to the camps around Boston. It took post at Roxbury, and served during the siege until the expiration of term of service, December, 1775. Ensign Chapin died May 5, 1796, aged 42 years. The Noah Chapin who was a cornet in Isaac Serjeant's Fourth regiment of light horse, which was at Norwich May, 1776, was probably the same man. The identity of the author of the diary is thus obtained from various published records. published records.

The writer of the diary thus de-scribes the battle of Bunker Hill: "Parade, Newport field, off Colt Hol-man, this morning before sunrise while our company were embodied for roll call, the enemy on Coppers Hill in Boston and from their shipping in the river, began to cannonade our people, river, began to cannonade our people, who had fortified on Bunker Hill to about a mile from Charlestown wharf, when the enemy made out in barges to the number of 5,000, up Mystic river, and landed on the left and back of our people, at the same time firing Charles town for a concert. Landing and at the same time firing on our people from floating batteries, they made a bold push on our troops, but were obliged to retreat several times; but at last they forced our people from their entrenchments and took possession of the ground, which was occasioned it ground, which was occasioned it seems, in some measure by our peo-ple's lack of recruits and ammunition.
